A POINTLESS DEAL

James and Bob are friends, they ~~study~~ ~~study~~ ~~study~~ ~~study~~ go to the same university together. Summer break had started ~~pr~~ recently, so now they have to decide on how to spend it together.

~~P~~ "Should we go to France, maybe?" - James
asked.

"I don't know," Bob sighed. "I've never been abroad"

50 "Really? Travelling is so fun! I've made so many friends during my last trip. We should visit them together."

~~pr~~ "Wait what are you talking about?" Bob interrupted. "Aren't journeys about taking pictures and buying souvenirs?"

"Making friends is the best thing about travelling!" James protested. "So

100 you're telling me you could do nothing except for spending money in a foreign country for a month? Alone?"

"Yes, I'm sure I could"

"Let's make a deal then!"

~~pr~~ "Good idea." Bob and James shook hands

150 In the end, they went to Paris together.
However they decided to enjoy themselves separately. James hanging out with his friends and finding new ones, Bob going around the city by himself. ~~pr~~

One day, Bob woke up to James leaving the hotel room.

"Wait!" Bob yelled. "Can I hang out with you guys?"

"Have you changed your mind?"

"Yeah, It's ~~been~~ really boring to travel alone. I've already been to all the interesting places.

"Told you". James smiled. "A journey is best measured in friends rather than miles." "Hurry up, my friends are waiting outside. I'll introduce you to them."
