1 "Who could have known"

Living in a small town isn't the best thing a person can experience. It never changes²⁰ and nothing really happens here.

I've been living in this town for my whole life and never been to any⁴⁰ other place. "When you grow up, you can go anywhere you want, Aubrey", - that's what my mum keeps on saying⁶⁰ telling me, so I'm basically stuck here.

As days went by I noticed a new student in my school and decided to say hi to her. Turned out she moved to Slouetown not that long time ago and has already become¹⁰⁰ bored. We exchanged our phone numbers and in a couple¹²⁰ of days I got a text from her saying¹⁴⁰ if asking if I wanted to hang out.

To my surprise I agreed and we met in a park¹⁶⁰ located nearby our school. Anne was standing there smiling. I asked her if everything was alright. "Everything is great", - she pronounced, - "let our small¹⁸⁰ adventure begin now". I couldn't say anything as she took my hand and headed deep into the park.

Who could have²⁰⁰ known this meeting would be something I'd remember till the end of my life. "I remember you mentioned you were bored here too. Well, I decided to stop wallowing in the misery and start doing something. That's why I baked²²⁰ this cake and brought it here", - Anne said. ~~For~~ It was the most delicious cake I've ever tried ~~in my life~~! ~~For~~ And here are²⁴⁰ two tickets for the new comedy film", - she added.

Anne's happiness²⁶⁰ willingness to change our lives amazed me. She showed me a new world - a world full of adventures. This was the moment I realised a journey is best measured²⁸⁰ in friends rather than miles.
